In an increasingly divided world, how can we find common ground to tackle critical global issues like climate change, regional conflicts and poverty?

At the Helvetas Symposium we'll explore innovative solutions and opportunities within development cooperation.

→ Two international experts share their views on development cooperation

→ Panel discussion on donor strategies with the European Commission, the Swedish Sida and the Swiss SDC

→ Panel discussion with members of the Swiss parliament about the future of Swiss development cooperation
